Miss G. N. Macardle,
Stratford-upon-Avon.

Dear Miss Macardle:

I owe you an apology for not answering your letter of March 16. I have found it this morning among several programmes that were lying on my table, it having evidently slipped in between them. However, probably there would be no practical difference because I know that we could not have sent any one this summer to take part in the Conference of Teachers of English which is to be held during the first week of the Shakespeare Summer Season. We look back with great pleasure to the visit of the Stratford players last November.

Yours sincerely,

President.

Stratford-upon-Avon Conference of Teachers of English

March 16th 1914

Box Office,

Stratford-upon-Avon.

Dear Sir -

I have pleasure in sending you a circular of a Conference of Teachers of English which is to be held here during the first week of the next Shakespeare Summer Season.

We are very anxious that Americans should interest themselves in this new movement in connection with the Shakespeare Festival; we are fortunate in having secured the support of The National Council of Teachers of English, & Professor Morris Thomas of Minnesota has very kindly promised to ~~read~~^{give} a paper; but we rely greatly an individual effort & enthusiasm, To Stir up interest in the Scheme in your Country.

Toronto gave such a hearty welcome to our Players on their recent visit, that we hope we may count on your sympathy & support in this new development of the Stratford work.

I shall be delighted to send any further information about the Conference you may require. or if you would care to have more copies of the circular for distribution
I should be only too glad to send any number.

Believe me

Yours Truly
J. N. Macardle
For the Hon. Sec.
